Shining Through

©2006 Debbie George

D Em7 G A
I should have known, that I'd find you here, You've always helped me Lord through all my tears
D Em7 G A
When will I learn, after all that I've been through, that if I keep my peace, then I remain in You.
D Em7 G A
Life and death, are in the power of the tongue, yet if my thoughts are wrong, that's where I've begun,
D Em7 G A
To lose my way and to lose my peace, till I'm falling down again, blindly on my knees..

Chorus
C G D A
Where can I hide from You? Your love is all around me it comes shining through
C G D A
And I want to be in Your courts of praise, forever my love and forever my praise (x2)
C G A
Pr-ai-se

D Em7 G A
Just when I am stunned to be in this place again, Your Spirit comes and whispers that I am your friend.
D Em7 G A
And I am amazed at my souls will to fight, when deep in my spirit I know that It's right
D Em7 G A
To lay aside all my foolish pride and to humble myself and draw near to your side
D Em7 G A
For there's no other place that I'd rather be, then to be in Your presence etern-ally.

2nd chorus
C G D A
And I will hide myself in You, Your love is all around me it comes shining through
C G D A
And I will sing in Your courts of praise, forever my love and forever my praise
C G D A
And I will hide myself in You, Your love is all around me it comes shining through
A C G D A
Shining through, shining through, yeah, Your love is all around me it come shining through

Shining through, shining through